

HOW TO GET TO INNSBRUCK

By car

Innsbruck is easily accessible through either the Inntal-Autobahn (A 12) or the Brenner Autobahn (A 13). Street signs indicate the way to the Congress Innsbruck which can be reached by either taking exit "Innsbruck-West" or "Innsbruck-Ost".

By train

Innsbruck is a railway junction with good Eurocity connections to Zurich (3,5 h), Munich (2 h), Vienna (5 h) or Bolzano (2 h). The main railway station is located close to the downtown area and to the main hotels (15 min walk to Congress Innsbruck). For information on train schedules please refer to www.oebb.at.

By plane

Innsbruck has its own airport, located about 3 km from the city centre which can be reached either by public bus or by taxi (approx. EUR 15,-). From many international airports within Europe, such as Vienna, Amsterdam or Frankfurt there are several daily flights to Innsbruck. Furthermore, there is a direct connection to London Gatwick. However, you are advised to make early bookings since the planes flying to Innsbruck only have a limited number of seats. Access to the city is further augmented by flying into Munich airport which is located some 180 km or a two-hour drive from Innsbruck.
