

Showcase your company

At the 2014 International Passive House Conference. The 2014 Passive House Awards will be presented at the opening ceremony of the 18th International Passive House Conference under the direction of Dr. Wolfgang Feist – a fittingly distinguished occasion for this high-level competition with direct support from the European Union.

Attracting over 1100 participants annually, the International Passive House Conference is the world's largest and most significant gathering of experts in the field of Passive House and energy efficiency in construction. The event sees well over 70 speakers present their projects, experiences, research and innovative solutions. The breadth of professionals in attendance provides an ideal opportunity to present your products and services.
