

Travelling by train

Rail connections

Nuremberg is a junction on the European high-speed rail network. ICE, EC and IC at hourly intervals ensure optimum accessibility. The journey from the main rail station to the Exhibition Centre by underground line number 1 (direction Langwasser Süd) takes only another eight minutes.

Travelling by plane

Airport

There are non-stop flights to Nuremberg airport from the major European capitals. The closeness of international airports such as Frankfurt, Munich, Zurich, Amsterdam and Paris ensures optimum connections to the intercontinental flight network.

Airport - Exhibition Centre

Nuremberg airport is close to the city and NürnbergMesse is the only German exhibition venue with an underground connection to the airport.

Take the U2 line from the airport, change to U1 (direction Langwasser Süd) at the main rail station then direct to the exhibition. Journey time approx. 20 minutes.

Travelling by car

Motorway network

Nuremberg is centrally located in the Southern German and Central European motorway network. A well-developed network of short feeder roads provides fast access from the motorways, city and region to the exhibition centre. A leading traffic and parking guidance system in Europe ensures convenient travel.
